Wouldn’t it be wonderful if ……
You could learn engaging, ready-to-use, best practices in language arts and math and earn 3hrs. graduate credit?

Parkwood Summer Academy and
The School of Education at
Indiana University Southeast
Present
Advanced Study in the Teaching of Mathematics – N543
Advanced Study of the Teaching of Language Arts – E549

When:  Hybrid Activities - June 1 – 14 and Face to Face with embedded practicum, June 15 - 26, 2015

Where:  Parkwood Elementary, Clarksville, IN

Credit offered:  Reading Course is required in the Master’s Program.
                Math can be used for one of two required advanced methods courses or for licensure.

For more information contact:  Dr. Susan Ridout, sridout@ius.edu